TEXTBOOKS: Richards, J. C., & Eckstut-Didier, S. (2003). Strategic Reading I: Building Effective Reading Skills. Cambridge: Cambridge University Press

ADDITIONAL MATERIALS:

- spiral notebook for class work
- folder with pockets (or a 3-ring binder)
- pen and/or pencil
- American English Dictionary

COURSE PREREQUISITE: Appropriate score on the ESL placement exam or completion of ESL 120

COURSE OBJECTIVES: The goal of this course is to provide high-intermediate, college-bound ESL students with essential practice with reading strategies necessary in an academic environment. Therefore, upon completing this course, students should:

- use pre-reading strategies to develop expectations about the content of the reading passage
- learn to skim texts for the main idea and scan for specific information
- use graphic organizers to organize and retain new information
- use context clues such as roots, suffixes, prefixes, punctuation, and grammar to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words and phrases
- recognize and understand the sequential organization of ideas in written texts (thesis statement, supporting paragraphs, and concluding paragraph)
- expand vocabulary knowledge through the development of structure / transition words, content words, and synonyms / antonyms
- learn to paraphrase and synthesize information in the text
- develop inferential skills
- respond (oral & written) to the content of a text using critical analysis techniques

ATTENDANCE & PUNCTUALITY: Students are expected to attend EVERY CLASS and to be ON TIME. If you must miss a class due to health or other extenuating circumstances, please leave a message with me at 651-4969 on or before the day of class. Please keep in mind that failure to do so in turn limits your opportunity to participate in classroom discussions and activities, which under such circumstances will adversely affect your course grade in the following manner:

- 5-6 unexcused absences ⇒ 10% Final Grade Reduction
- 7-8 unexcused absences ⇒ 20% Final Grade Reduction
- 9 or more unexcused absences ⇒ F (FAILING GRADE)

If you must miss a class due to health or other extenuating circumstances, please leave a message with me at 651-4969 on or before the day of class.

Be advised that a WITHDRAWAL (W) will NOT be given to any student who has attended class beyond the SECOND week of the semester. It is the ultimate responsibility of the STUDENT to formally WITHDRAW from this course if he/she does not wish to or cannot finish the course.

NOTE: ALL PAGERS & CELLPHONES MUST BE TURNED OFF DURING CLASS!!!!

EXAMS: A midterm & final exam will be given to assess your ability to utilize various types of reading strategies during the reading process and the extent to which you comprehend written texts in terms of recognition, recall, synthesis, inferencing, and critical analysis skills. Make-up exams WILL NOT be given except under extraordinary circumstances to be determined by the instructor. Thus, failure to take an exam on the day it was originally administered will result in a ZERO for that exam.

QUIZZES: A short quiz will be given after each unit to assess your comprehension of the vocabulary and concepts presented in the unit. Make-up quizzes WILL NOT be given except under extraordinary circumstances to be determined by the instructor. Thus, failure to take a quiz on the day it was originally administered will result in a ZERO for that quiz.

HOMEWORK: Homework will be assigned regularly providing you with consistent practice with reading strategy development, reading comprehension skills, as well as vocabulary development. You must write out ALL homework in a spiral-bound notebook. You will receive full credit for all FULLY completed work turned in on the due date. However, late homework will NOT be accepted for credit except under extraordinary circumstances to be determined by the instructor. Thus, failure to turn in homework on the due date will result in a ZERO for that assignment.

PENGUIN BOOK REPORTS (PBR): A book report will be assigned at the beginning of the semester & again after midterm. For each report, you will choose any Penguin LEVEL 3-4 book title (available from me or from the library) that interests you. After you have read the book, you will prepare a book report to be completed by the due date. Any book report turned in late will be reduced by 10% per class day after the original due date.

CURRENT EVENTS PRESENTATIONS: Each student will be expected to give TWO Current Events Presentations in groups of TWO or THREE throughout the semester. Each student group will chose & read a newspaper article of their choice from the LVRJ. Based on the article they had read, each group will prepare & give a 10 minute oral presentation & lead a follow-up classroom discussion. All student groups are expected to read their article & prepare their presentation/discussion BEFORE the day they are scheduled to give it. Furthermore, students will NOT be permitted to read their article to the class, but rather they must PRESENT it in their own words with the aid of visuals (e.g., pictures, charts, outlines). A sign-up sheet will be circulated during the first week of class.

OPEN LAB SCHEDULE: You are encouraged to use our language laboratory (CY 2649) outside of class time to improve your English listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills. In order to use the lab, you will need both a lab card issued by your instructor and a CCSN student picture ID issued by the Student Gov't Office in CY 1108. The language laboratory is available for your use during the following days & times:
